

CHARACTER SCHOLARSHIP

To assist local students in pursuing their education at a post-secondary institution, Fox Creek RCMP detachment annually will each make available an $800.00 bursary to high school graduates from Fox Creek.

The intent of the bursary program is to award monies to graduates who meet the following criteria:

-  Enrolled in a post-secondary education program within 6 months of graduation.
-  Demonstrates involvement in the community with an emphasis on volunteerism
-  Exemplifies integrity, honesty, and sound character

Applicants are asked to complete an essay (250 words max) outlining:

-  Specific details regarding volunteer activities in the past three years.
-  An explanation of how the individual embodies the qualities of integrity/honesty/ and strong character.

Applicants must provide two personal reference letters providing confirmation of the applicant's volunteer activities.

The selection committee, made up of RCMP and school representatives will evaluate applicants and determine the successful applicant.

Due date for submissions: Friday, June 21, 2019

Essay submissions can be submitted to the RCMP detachment in Fox Creek or at the Fox Creek School general office. Enrollment in a post-secondary education institution must be confirmed before the award is granted.
